

The Founder:

Social Butterfly School of Etiquette was founded by Ms. Moore, in an effort to instill greatness in children at an early age, her ideas and commitment to schools as well as her community giving is with notice, while displaying excellence in her giving through great citizenship, responsibility and moral values, her professionalism persist. Ms.: Moore feels that these chartists tough to children will carry them well beyond the community and into their adult live's. She is a graduate of the professional class of John Robert Powers a prestige modeling / charm school, A Powers girl is the title she earned there, where stares such as Lucille Ball have also attended. Her experiences lie's in makeup Artistry and she has worked with top magazines such as Ebony, her experiences with modeling includes the following' types, run way modeling, tea room modeling and manikin modeling., she holds a licenses in cosmetology and MS. Moore currently hold four parenting certificates, a certificate of drug and alcoholic dependency counseling, one certificate from the Cover City Police Department located in the greater Los Angeles area working with adolescents' children at risk. Ms.: Moore majors in Psychology, she's a certified Hypnotherapy's, an anther, an award winning speech champion, a professional customer service rep and finally a licenses Ordained Minister.

I always get what I want

Preparing for greatness!

Social Butterfly School of Etiquette

Our Mission: is to teach greatness through Social Etiquette .

Social Butterfly School of Etiquette

Name _____ Cell # _____
 Butterflycatchers101@yahoo.com

What we do: We provide our certificate awarded social etiquette development classes for both sexes ranging from the ages of eighteen years old and up. Our uniquely designed social etiquette curriculum is offered on-line as well as in person. As instructors are out-sourced to facilities of our community as well as across the states, our program will address youth positive behavior management of, self-worth, leadership abilities and, many other behavior management skills that would enhance our participants greatness abilities. Our schools program concludes with an annual Red carpet butterfly ball, escorted limousine service, while dining at a five star restaurant where participants except awards, witness entertainment, have the opportunity to be in the running for our annual social etiquette king and queen award. Participants are encouraging to mingle with their peers from both our on-line school as well as facilities where many students have decided to complete their certification. Students will all have the opportunity to ballroom dance and, place their skills into effect; such skills as flirting with a hand held fan for girls and with a hanker-chief for boys will be an option for adult participants to consider while becoming entertained. When participants are able to meet their opposing genders and understand appropriate social skills are implemented. Connections with their counterparts in and out of these types of environments do assist with participants growth and development therefore, participants florist socially together. Social Butterfly School of Etiquette do provide the services of training many instructors through our Teacher social etiquette program that would prepare instructors to develop participants abroad. In many cases this program is offered in personal classroom setting as they are certified to train students by way of our curriculum in the following subjects. Dress for success: This course is the first of 7, an online course of dressing successfully for all events and for both sexes to learn from. This course offers everything that is needed that would prepare any individual for dressing appropriately from head to toe when attending almost any event. This course incorporates appropriate dressing skills meant for the following occasions: sports, casual, formal, informal, red carpet and anywhere in between. This course is extensive enough that it is separated into 7 series for the duration of approximately two hour long when taking in person. Additionally, this course offers certification of completion.

Socializing and conversing:  is an online course of professional speech development for both sexes ranging from the ages of 13 and up. socializing and conversing series #1 is the first series of 2, it incorporates everything one would need to know that would prepare its participant for their professional social career and life. This course incorporates voice induction development, hand and feet placement, appropriate body movement, voice induction, memory by association skills that would prepare individuals for providing their most professional and powerful public speech. it incorporates everything one would need to know that would prepare its participant for their professional social career and life. This course is separated into two parts, series #1 and #2, both classes are approximately two hour long when taking in person. This course corresponds with the book Socializing and conversion and offers certification of completion. Music and Movement: is our online course of music appreciation and movement of the body. This class was designed with both genders ranging from the ages of eleven and up in mind. Music and movement incorporate important professional skill and development that would prepare its reader for their professional career and life. This course corresponds with the book Social butterfly the 3rd edition music and movement when traveling in and out of professional social setting. This course does not exclude ballroom dance development, appropriate body movements that one should understand when expecting to climb the corporates latter while developing honorable status in elite social situation of many kinds. This course offers certification of completion. Table Manners:  an online course of professional table manners development designed for participants ranging from ages eleven and up of both genders. Table manners series #1 is the first series of two. it incorporates eating, drinking and other table utensil usages. This online course incorporates how to eating and table utilize when attending any five star establishment. This series incorporates all that is needed to understand how to behave when dining out at these five star and diamond rated establishments it does not exclude review, previews, test and end of the chapter answer keys. it corresponds with the book Social Butterfly table manners and proves many aspects of appropriate behaviors that is expected when attending events such as lunching's, buffet settings, formal and basic plate setting events and much more that would assist the readers social etiquette table manners development and skills. Hygiene:  This online privately enrolled class learning will assist in its participants development of personal appropriate hygiene habits that are socially approving. Hygiene care is appropriate for both genders and is age appropriate for participants ranging from the ages of 13 and up. Chivalry:

 is an online course of appropriate escorting / chivalrous development for both sexes ranging from ages of thirteen and up. The classes are divided into two parts the first series and second series. Chivalry series#2 is an extension of Chivalry #1. it incorporates development of escorting in and out of dating situations. This course does not exclude flirting with a hand held fan and or a handkerchief for a man, traveling with a date in many different occasions that one might be faced with. Some of these skills would incorporated enter a room with greatness, the ability to command desired responses in social situations. Additional skills of entering and exiting a limousine, incorporate what acceptable mannerism and expected what duties are expected of a gentleman as well as for a lady. This course is 2nd and series and most advance chivalry course. This course is certificate awarded. You're going to love who you have become and so will your partner.